The JayCettes are co-operating with the Torrance Terrace Garden Club, who are to be in charge of all floral entries and displays.

Anyone residing in the Harbor Area may participate in the hobby and art displays by contacting entry chairman, Mrs. Douglas Horlander, FRontier 2-6231 or her committee. Revival Services Held Here Nightly

The Harbor City Revival Tabernacle is engaged in a revival campaign with Evangelist and Mrs. R. H. Bishop, with services nightly at 7:30 except Monday and Saturday. The evangelists are both good speakers according to the pastor, Rev. Fred Martin. There will be prayer for the sick and special music and singing each night.

The church is less than one year old but is striving for 225 in attendance in Sunday School. An Easter Egg Hunt is planned for all the boys and girls in attendance next Sunday, Rev. Martin added.

The motto of too many people is to buy on credit in the hope that tomorrow will not arrive on time.

'There Are Dogs in Heaven!'

It is the Eternal Whistler who goes whistling up the sky. And at his heels are the weary dogs that have come to him to die. He whistles them over the far off clouds, And up to the shining gate.

And while he whistles a different tune, They sit, and they pant, and they wait. He whistles a sudden piercing note, And slowly the gate swings wide. And — when nobody's looking — St. Peter winks, And hustles them all inside.

The above poetry was contributed by a member (human, no doubt) of the San Pedro Dog Obedience Club. The club is set to graduate 20 trained canine pets tonight, in ceremonies set for 7:30 p.m. at the clubhouse, 12th and Cabrillo aves., San Pedro.

Dog owners interested in entering their animals in the training classes, are invited to attend the graduation tonight, and register for the next class meetings.
